Income Family Micro-Insurance Scheme (IFMIS)

Supporting families in crisis

NTUC Income (Income) understands the difficulties that children and youths may go through when death or total and permanent disability occurs to a parent or guardian, especially if the person is the sole bread-winner of the family. As such, we have launched the Income Family Micro-Insurance Scheme (IFMIS) to help eligible families from disadvantaged backgrounds whose children are students in pre-school, primary, secondary and specialised schools, as well as, pre-university institutions in Singapore, to cope financially in such times of need.

As the only insurance co-operative in Singapore, Income aims to make insurance accessible, affordable and sustainable for all. Today, Income serves the protection, savings and investment needs of two million people in Singapore by offering life, health and general insurance products via its multi-channel customer touch-points. For more information about Income, please visit www.income.com.sg.

What you need to know about IFMIS

Who is this for?

Eligible to parents/legal guardians, who are between 16 to 65 years old (age at the next birthday), and have a child/ward:

- i. Attending a local Government or Government-aided primary, secondary and specialised schools, as well as, pre-university institutions and is an MOE Financial Assistance Scheme (MOE-FAS) recipient; or
- ii. Attending NTUC's My First Skool and the family has a Gross Household Income of up to $4,500 a month or Per Capita Income that does not exceed $1,125 a month.

(The eligible person is known hereafter as the "Insured".)

How do you benefit?

In the unfortunate event of death or total and permanent disability (TPD) of an Insured, IFMIS offers a pay-out of $5,000 upon approval of the claim. Only one claim per eligible family is permissibly each year.

Income does not pay for any claim that arises from the following:

- a. Death – suicide or attempted suicide, while sane or insane.
- b. TPD – self-inflicted injury.

What do you have to do?

The Insured is automatically enrolled in IFMIS and requires no premium.

How to make a claim?

The family of the Insured can obtain a Claim Form from the child's/ward's school, and submit the completed form to the school with the required supporting documents. The claim forms are available online at www.income.com.sg/claims/life-insurance.

Claims must be submitted within six months from the date of the claim event, i.e. date of death or certification of TPD.

How will the claims be paid?

Income will process and issue a pay-out of $5,000 to the Insured's family should death or TPD occur. The pay-out will be issued via cheque to support the family's immediate financial needs upon verification of all required documents.
